OUR CO-FOUNDERS SPEAK

Last quarter, I am proud to share that 360tf has achieved remarkable growth. Our corporate network expanded to over 34 countries, contributing over USD 2.3 billion in volume.

The industry's evolving views on digitization and technology have been instrumental in driving trade finance and our platform. Embracing digitization is crucial in the dynamic global supply chain. Operational transformation is no longer a choice but a necessity. Agility, flexibility, and investment in training are key to embracing digital transformation.

At 360tf, simplicity is paramount. Our new user-friendly platform, enhanced with AI and embedded financing, simplifies navigation and makes financing accessible with a single click. Our commitment extends to initiatives like the Electronic Trade Documents Bill and the Digital Negotiable Instrument, attracting alternative investors and establishing cross-border supply chain standards.

Together, we embark on an exciting journey of innovation and revolutionize the way we trade and finance in the digital era.

360^{tf} : SPREADING FAR & WIDE

- We are excited to share some notable highlights from this quarter. Our journey began with attending the prestigious BAFT and IFA Annual conferences in the USA, where we gained valuable insights and established a confirmed membership at BAFT. We are thrilled to be actively engaged with these organizations and have become part of SCM committee at BAFT.
- We represented 360tf at the GTR Awards, GTR India (Mumbai), and GTR UK (London). Our CEO & Co-Founder, Mr. Vikram Lodha, shared his expertise on recent trends in Digitisation and the Trade Finance landscape as a key speaker at these events.
- In line with our commitment to fostering industry partnerships, we associated with the Apparel and Textile sector as a Trade Finance Partner. This strategic collaboration allows us to make a significant impact in the industry and facilitates accelerated and secure trade between Bangladesh, India and other South East Asian countries.
- We have been engaging with exporters across multiple cities in India through actively conducting travels and roadshows, strengthening our relationships and expanding our reach.
